Wilderness Road State Park acknowledges the sensitive nature of cultural interpretation of indigenous peoples and seeks to provide authentic and respectful programs. We encourage members of federally and state recognized Native American tribes to participate in our unique and diverse programming. As in the past, all interpretive volunteers are subject to approval by a jury process, ensuring historical accuracy. All volunteer applicants participating as Native American interpreters will be juried by a member of the Eastern Band of the Cherokee who is acting as the park's consultant to ensure appropriate standards concerning historical authenticity and cultural integrity are maintained.

OFFICIAL SETUP AND TAKE-DOWN WILL BEGIN WEDNESDAY MAY 6TH AND END MONDAY MAY 11TH. ANYONE NEEDING TO ARRIVE EARLY OR STAY LATE PLEASE CALL THE PARK OFFICE TO MAKE ARRANGEMENTS.
